Ted Wright joins Sequest as Business Development Director

Lisle, IL (June 17, 2010) –Sequest announced today that effective June 21, 2010 Mr. Ted Wright will join the Sequest leadership team as Business Development Director. The addition of Ted Wright demonstrated Sequest’s continued commitment to become the premier software and solutions company for behavioral health and human services.

Ted Wright brings extensive and successful experiences to the growing Sequest management team. He has extensive work experience in specialized care management, organizational strategic development, systems analysis and behavioral health software and services sales.

Mr. Wright’s recent history included seven years with Netsmart Technologies as a Senior Systems Consultant and Regional Account Manager. Previous success within behavioral health field included the Manager of Consulting Services for the Echo Group and Product Manager of Centromine Inc. Collectively Ted brings a deep expertise in the development of solutions to hundreds of non profit organizations.

“We are extremely excited to have Ted join our team. We have been successful in attracting experts within our field to our vision of delivering unparalleled service to our partnerships. Ted will bring tremendous leadership and knowledge to our Business Development team and our management team.”

Bill Connors, MSW
Sequest President/CEO

We have a solution for that.®

"Ted's experience and credibility in the behavioral sciences compliments Sequest's reputation of being customer centric, reliable and innovative. The addition of his skills to the senior management group will enhance many areas of the company."
